Your Stars

Leo: July 23--Aug. 22

Managing your money is a struggle for you, Leo. Mostly because when you see something you want and you have the cash, you just get it. You've managed to save a little cash lately but instead of spending on the first flashy gizmo you spot at the mall, hang on to it because something better will come up!

Celebrities with this sign: Edward Norton and Tori Amos

Virgo: Aug. 23--Sept. 22

Some weird stuff is going on amongst your friends this week. You're feeling a bit out of the loop and you can't figure out what's going down. It's starting to get to you. But try to forget about that for now and stick close to home. Don't get too wrapped up in what your friends are up to.

Celebrities with this sign: Regis Philbin and Salma Hayek

Libra: Sept. 23--Oct. 23

You just want to kick back and chill. But after a couple days of nothing, your mind will go into overdrive and you'll go a little wacky. Even though relaxing is a good thing, try to keep yourself a little bit busy with a book or a puzzle or something that'll keep your mind busy.

Celebrities with this sign: Mark McGwire and Fran Drescher

Scorpio: Oct. 24--Nov. 21

Your friends are not easily convinced. But you've managed to be very influential this summer! And now a bunch of people are getting together soon for what will probably be the get-together of the summer. And you're not nearly as psyched as you should be. But after a chat with your friend, you'll be excited!

Celebrities with this sign: Larry King and Goldie Hawn

Sagittarius: Nov. 22--Dec. 21

Your advice is completely honest and that's why so many of your buddies go to you when they need the straight answers! This week when a pal comes to you with a serious issue, it'll be really hard to give them the straight goods. It may make your buddy really mad, but they'll be happy you were truthful.

Celebrities with this sign: Steven Spielberg and Tina Turner

Capricorn: Dec. 22--Jan. 19

Someone's been catching your eye this week and you've got a bit of a crush. You've never been great at approaching new people. But building up the nerve to say hello will be worth it. Don't pass up the opportunity to meet someone new and make a friend!

Celebrities with this sign: Kevin Costner and Aaliyah

Aquarius: Jan. 20--Feb. 18

Painting, drawing, crafts, writing, singing – your creative urges are all coming to the surface. All you want to do is create. It's definitely a crafty week. Why not grab some chalk and create a cool masterpiece on the sidewalk? Or grab some pencil crayons and paper and draw, draw, draw!

Celebrities with this sign: Robbie Williams and Shakira

Pisces: Feb. 19--March 20

You're a bit gullible, Pisces. Your friends have suckered you into believing a few crazy stories in the past. But this week, beware. When your buddy comes around with an outrageous story, stay on your toes. If you're not paying attention, you'll believe every word he or she says.

Celebrities with this sign: Bruce Willis and Cindy Crawford

Aries: March 21--April 19

All you want to do is sit around like a bump on a log. There are lots of things to do and you're getting a crazy amount of phone calls from friends who want to hang out. But you'd just rather lay low at home. But seriously Aries, go out and have some fun before the summer's gone!

Celebrities with this sign: Keri Russell and Steven Seagal

Taurus: April. 20--May 20

You're pretty sick of hearing your buddies complain about being bored this summer. You just can't relate. You're having a great summer. Make a few suggestions of things your friends can do. Maybe they'll figure it out and start making the most of their summers too!

Celebrities with this sign: Janet Jackson and Lance Bass

Gemini: May 21--June 21

You're really packing in the fun this summer! You've totally made the most of your time. And even though you're not in school, you continue to learn. Whether you're getting into an awesome book, checking out a cool nature site or checking out a museum, you're really keeping yourself informed.

Celebrities with this sign: Wynonna Judd and Prince William

Cancer: June 22--July 22

Still hung up on some stuff that happened the last week of school. Well if you don't stop worrying about it, your summer will be ruined by your negative thoughts. Keep yourself busy and you'll forget about that stupid thing you did. And by the time September rolls around, everyone else will forget it too!
